470-3150, Acceptance of Service of Application for Reinstatement of Support

Purpose Form 470-3150 is used when a party is served in person in the CSRU office by office staff. The party's signature is legal acknowledgment that the party is served with form 470-3084, Application for Reinstatement of Support, and is notified there are ten days to file a motion or answer with district court.

Legal reference 1995 Iowa Code Section 252B.20(6)
441 IAC 99.108(252B)

Source The form is generated from the FORMS module. The process code is RIENS.

Completion Prepare this form only if a party comes to the CSRU office and CSRU has received copies of the file-stamped 470-3084 and form 470-3148, Original Notice of Application for Reinstatement of Support, from the clerk of court's office.

You will need the following:

- ◆ Form 470-3084
- ◆ The address of the county courthouse where the party served must file a motion or answer

The party served must sign this form in front of a notary.

Distribution Make photocopies of the signed form for the party who signed it and for the case file.

Hand form 470-3083, Application for Reinstatement of Support – Cover Letter, and copies of forms 470-3084, 470-3148, and 470-3150 to the party who signed form 470-3150.

470-3162, Withdrawal of Application for Reinstatement of Support

Purpose Form 470-3162 is used to ask the court to stop consideration of form 470-3084, Application for Reinstatement of Support, because the deadline for filing a valid reinstatement order has passed. The goal of filing form 470-3162 is to avert entry of an untimely and ineffective reinstatement order.

A suspension order terminates the support obligation after the order has been on file more than six months. A reinstatement order cannot reinstate a terminated support obligation.

Source The form is generated from the FORMS module. The process code is REINS.

Completion Prepare and file form 470-3162 if CSRU properly submitted form 470-3084, but the court did not enter form 470-3085, Order Reinstating Support, before the date the suspension order terminated the support obligation.

You will need the following information:

- ◆ The county where form 470-3084 was filed
- ◆ The names of THE petitioner and THE respondent
- ◆ The docket number of form 470-3084
- ◆ The date form 470-3084 was filed
- ◆ The date THE suspension order was entered

Distribution Generate the form. Make:

- ◆ One copy for the clerk of court
- ◆ One copy for each necessary party
- ◆ One copy for the case file

Forward the form to the CSRU attorney to sign.

Send or deliver the signed form to the clerk of court.

Mail copies of the signed form to each necessary party.

470-3163, Motion to Void Order Reinstating Support

Purpose Form 470-3163 is used to ask the court to nullify its own reinstatement order if it was entered after the suspension order had been on file more than six months. The goals of filing form 470-3163 are to clarify the court record and ask the court to render an untimely and ineffective reinstatement order void.

A suspension order terminates the support obligation after the order has been on file more than six months. A reinstatement order cannot reinstate a terminated support obligation.

Source The form is generated from the FORMS module. The process code is REINS.

Completion Prepare and file form 470-3163 if CSRU timely submitted form 470-3084, Application for Reinstatement of Support, and form 470-3162, Withdrawal of Application for Reinstatement of Support, but the court entered a reinstatement order after the suspension order terminated the support obligation.

If the court enters a reinstatement order before CSRU has filed form 470-3162, do not file it. Instead, prepare and file form 470-3163 only.

You will need the following information:

- ◆ The county where the reinstatement order was entered
- ◆ The names of the petitioner and the respondent
- ◆ The docket number of the reinstatement order
- ◆ The date the suspension order was filed
- ◆ The date the reinstatement order was filed

Distribution Generate the form. Make:

- ◆ One copy for clerk of court
- ◆ One copy for each necessary party
- ◆ One copy for the case file

Forward the form to the CSRU attorney to sign.

Send or deliver the signed form to the clerk of court and mail copies of it to each necessary party.

Keep one copy in the case file.

GENERAL LETTER NO. 10-T-AP-2

ISSUED BY: Bureau of Collections, Division of Policy Coordination

SUBJECT: Employees' Manual, Title 10, Chapter T, Reinstatement of Support Appendix, forms:

470-3082, Notice of Decision to Reinstate Support Order, revised;
470-3084, Application for Reinstatement of Support, revised;
470-3085, Order Reinstating Support, revised;
470-3162, Withdrawal of Application for Reinstatement of Support, revised;
470-3163, Motion to Void Order Reinstating Support, revised.

Summary

This letter incorporates minor legislative changes in 1996 Iowa Acts, Chapter 1141. These changes amend Iowa Code Section 252B.20, subsections 4 and 8, and affect suspension and reinstatement of child support orders. They extend the time to reinstate an order if an application for reinstatement is pending before the court.

Due to this change, the Department will accept reinstatement requests submitted during the sixth month after the Order Suspending Support was filed and put the six-month time frame on hold until the court reaches a decision.
